Caorunn (Ka -roon) Small Batch Scottish Gin, Alc. 41.8%, 70cl, £21.99

Caorunn is the Gaelic word for Rowan Berry, one of the five Scottish botanicals used in this gin. This boutique 40+ percenter is silky smooth and comes threaded with subtle floral, heather and citrus notes that last right through to the swallow. Not worth the £20+ price tag if you are G&T drinker, but well worth a punt if you prefer your Gin Naked or Pink.

Score: 8/10
