

MAKER'S MARK COCKTAIL FOR BRIGHTON FESTIVAL

06-08-2009

Maker's Mark has been selected as the exclusive bourbon of the Brighton Beachdown Festival 2009. The boutique event at Devil's Dyke in Brighton from 28 - 31 August promises an eclectic line-up of music, film and comedy entertainment. Maker's Mark has developed the Beachdown Breeze for festival goers, performers and celebs to enjoy across all bars, including the VIP bar. Comprising Maker's Mark, triple sec, apple juice, ginger ale and an orange garnish. Available from Sainsbury's, Waitrose and Morrisons, 70cl bottles retail at around £24.

www.beachdownfestival.com

www.makersmark.com

BALMENACH LAUNCHES 'SUPER PREMIUM' GIN

04-08-2009

Balmenach Distillery has launched its "super-premium" Caorunn Scottish Gin, made from 5 Celtic botanicals: the Rowan berry, an organic blend of Coul Blush apple, heather, bog myrtle and dandelion, fused with 6 traditional gin botanicals. Having scooped the Gold award in the Super Premium Category of The Gin Masters 2009, a 70cl bottle of 41.8% abv of Caruun retails at around £22.

www.caorunningin.com