

THE BRANDS

ANGOSTURA RUM

You've heard of Angostura® aromatic bitters, however, to those who know, Angostura is just as famous for its unique rums. The House of Angostura has been in the business of making fine spirits since 1824. That's almost 200 years experience of fermenting, distilling, ageing, and blending, which come together to deliver truly smooth rum, quite different from any other rum produced in the Caribbean.

DUNKELD ATHOLL BROSE

Inspired by an ancient Highland recipe, the award winning Dunkeld Atholl Brose is a delicious boutique liqueur. A luxurious blend of single malt whisky, honey, oatmeal and carefully selected herbs. Its story being in 1475 when the Earl of Atholl foiled a rebellion against the king by the Lord of the Isles, Iain Macdonald, by filling the well he drew water from with honey, oatmeal and whisky. The mixture was so enticing that Macdonald stayed to enjoy the concoction, giving the Earl time to catch him.

BRUGAL

Brugal is the most popular rum in the Dominican Republic where it has an 80% market share. It was first distilled in 1888 and it is a premium brand full of authenticity, strong heritage and an unwavering commitment to the highest quality standards. Brugal makes its rum traditionally, aging it in American, ex bourbon casks, on-site in Puerta Plata.

CAORUNN GIN

Caorunn Gin is a small batch distilled, handcrafted Scottish gin, infused with five Celtic botanicals. Caorunn, pronounced 'ka-roon' is the Gaelic word for Rowan Berry, one of 5 Celtic botanicals used to infuse its unique flavour. This gin is small batch distilled and handcrafted by our Gin Master at Balmnach Distillery. www.caorunnjin.com.

CHAMBORD

Chambord is crafted from the world's finest raspberries. Add to that Madagascar vanilla, Moroccan citrus peel, honey and black raspberry liqueurs on the market. It is said to have been introduced to King Louis XIV during one of his visits to the Chateau de Chambord. It has always had a regal bottle, but now it has a slightly more modern look.
